2. The final act of the long-drawn-out negotiations took place at Versailles on Saturday afternoon, and to-day Germany and the Allies – always with the exception of America – are at peace. Peace is a blessed word, and both the word and the fact are welcome to-day. So far as Germany is concerned there is for the present an end of strife, and at least a formal return to the decent relations of civilised states.

Solution

Ans: (c) Write a petition to the authorities highlighting the problem

Explanation:

The Early Nationalists believed in using constitutional and peaceful methods such as petitions, resolutions, and appeals to bring about reforms.

Therefore, Tina is most likely to write a petition to the authorities to inform them about the damaged road and request action.

Thus, the correct option is (c).

2.

Ans:

(i) Three causes of the First World War:

1. Militarism: European nations built large armies and stockpiled weapons, creating tension and fear of war.
2. Alliances: The formation of rival alliances – the Triple Alliance (Germany, Austria-Hungary, Italy) and the Triple Entente (Britain, France, Russia) – divided Europe into hostile camps.
3. Nationalism: Intense national pride and rivalry, especially between Germany and France, created conflict over territories and political influence.

(ii) Name of the organisation founded in 1920 and two objectives

The organisation established in 1920 was the League of Nations.

Two objectives of the League were:

- (a) Prevent future wars: By encouraging countries to settle disputes peacefully through negotiation and diplomacy.
- (b) Promote disarmament: By reducing armaments of nations to lower the chances of future conflicts and promote long-term peace.

(iii) Four clauses of the Versailles Treaty that affected Germany

(a) Loss of territory: Germany had to surrender territories such as Alsace-Lorraine to France. Parts of East Germany were given to Poland, and Germany lost all overseas colonies.

(b) Military restrictions: Germany's army was limited to 100,000 soldiers. Conscription was banned, and it was not allowed to have an air force, submarines, or tanks. The Rhineland was demilitarised.

(c) Reparations: Germany had to pay 132 billion gold marks as compensation to the Allied powers for war damages.

(d) War guilt clause: Article 231 held Germany responsible for causing the war. This caused humiliation and bitterness in Germany and contributed to future unrest.

3.

Ans: (b) Drain Theory

Explanation:

Dadabhai Naoroji, in his work "Poverty and Un-British Rule in India", explained how Britain was draining the wealth of India through unfair trade, taxation, and exploitation.

This came to be known as the Drain Theory, which argued that India's poverty was a result of economic drain to Britain.

Thus, the correct option is (b).

4.

Ans: (a) Gopal Krishna Gokhale

Explanation:

Gopal Krishna Gokhale was a leading figure among the Early Nationalists, who believed in peaceful and constitutional methods to bring reforms in India.

Thus, the correct option is (a).

5.

Ans: (b) Simultaneous ICS exams in India and England

Explanation:

The Early Nationalists demanded equal opportunities for Indians in government services, including holding the ICS examinations simultaneously in India and England.

This demand was later accepted as a reform, showing the impact of their constitutional efforts.

Thus, the correct option is (b).

Ans:

(i) Poverty and Un-British Rule in India

(ii) Dharma Marg Darshak (a magazine written by Dadabhai Naoroji)
