2.

Ans:

(i) Non-Intervention in Domestic Affairs:

The United Nations follows the principle of respecting the sovereignty of each member state and does not interfere in their internal matters.

(ii) Sovereign Equality:

All member nations of the UN are considered equal and enjoy the same rights and responsibilities within the organization.

3.

Ans: After experiencing the devastating effects of two World Wars within just 25 years, world leaders felt the need for a stronger and more effective organization than the League of Nations. They held several conferences to discuss its structure and feasibility. Their efforts resulted in the establishment of the United Nations on October 24, 1945, in San Francisco.

4.

Ans: The permanent headquarters of the International Court of Justice is located at The Hague (Holland).

5.

Ans: The International Court of Justice (ICJ) plays an important role in maintaining peace by settling legal disputes between member countries when they voluntarily bring their cases before it. The ICJ also gives advisory opinions to United Nations bodies that seek its guidance. Although these opinions are not binding, they help in resolving international issues peacefully.

6.

Ans: UNICEF plays an important role in modern times by promoting education and scientific development, as well as preserving cultural heritage. It has become a key international agency contributing to global peace and security.

7.

Ans:

(i) One objective of the United Nations is to maintain international peace and security by preventing conflicts and encouraging the peaceful settlement of disputes.
