Question 2

Read the extract from 'Julius Caesar' Act 3, Scene 1, given below and answer the questions that follow:

Antony: *I do beseech you, if you bear me hard,
Now, whilst your purpled hands do reek and smoke,
Fulfill your pleasure. Live a thousand years,
I shall not find myself so apt to die;
No place will please me so, no mean of death,
As here by Caesar, and by you cut off,
The choice and master spirits of this age.*

- (i) Who does Antony call 'The choice and master spirits of this age'? [3]
Name any two of these persons.

- (v) Give ONE word or phrase to describe Antony's conduct at this time. [4]
Why do you suppose he behaved the way he did?
How do the listeners respond to the above words from Antony?

Question 3

Read the extract from 'Julius Caesar' Act 5, Scene 5, given below and answer the questions that follow:

Brutus: Farewell to you—and you—and you, Volumnius.—
Strato, thou hast been all this while asleep.
Farewell to thee, too, Strato.—Countrymen,
My heart doth joy that yet in all my life
I found no man but he was true to me.
I shall have glory by this losing day
More than Octavius and Mark Antony
By this vile conquest shall attain unto.
So fare you well at once, for Brutus' tongue
Hath almost ended his life's history.
Night hangs upon mine eyes; my bones would rest,
That have but labored to attain this hour.

- (i) Why does Brutus call this a 'losing day'? [3]
How does he plan to 'have glory'?
Who helps him with this?
- (ii) Explain the line 'I found no man but he was true to me'. [3]
Give evidence to show whether Brutus himself was 'true'.

- (iii) How does Antony describe Brutus at the end of the play? [3]
Give examples of any ONE error in judgement that Brutus made in the play.
